International relations BA

As of September 1st, 2018, SZE plans to launch full-fledged, bachelor-level education in English. International students who successfully accomplish the Foundational Courses and/or students who pass entrance exams to BSc or BA courses taught in English in front of the examination boards of SZE, will be enrolled to the subsequent academic courses, resulting in full-fledged academic trainings with BSc or BA degrees issued as academic degrees of the European Higher Education Area (EHEA).

| Apáczai Csere János Faculty (of Humanities, Education and Social Sciences) | Bachelor in International Relations (BA) | detailed programme description |

Thesis guidelines for International relations BA programme: Instructions for content and form for writing a thesis; Sample of thesis; The compulsory pages (insets) prescribed; Thesis cover

More information about SZE degree programmes taught in English